Ordinance # 903 was passed by City Council on October 18, 2011 and submitted to the City Secretary's Office on the same date. Pursuant to Tex. Loc. Gov't Code Ann. Sec 52.003, the Mayor of the Town of Hollywood Park had four days to either sign the Ordinance or return to the Town Council for reconsideration. The Mayor did not sign the Ordinance within the proscribed time period. As a matter of State Law, said Ordinance shall become effective on October 25, 2011 notwithstanding the lack of mayoral signature.

Memo to the City Secretary and City Attorney

On 18 October 2011 during the regular Council meeting, item #6 under New Business pertaining to "...efficient city staff/city council member communications..." was passed by the Council.

I have concerns relating to the passage of the ordinance having been first disseminated on the day of the Council meeting. Among other issues/concerns, I believe there are separation of powers concerns, issues relating to supervisory responsibilities and powers of the Mayor, and the need to obtain a full and complete recommendation of the City Attorney. These issues and more need to be reviewed and reconsidered. The ordinance requires additional discussion and consideration by the Council.
